

National Health Education Week 2006

Healthy Kids: Creating Safe Communities and Schools

October 16-20, 2006

National Center for Health Education

375 Hudson Street
New York, NY 10012

Phone: (212) 463-4052
Fax: (212) 463-4060

Web: www.nche.org
Email: nche@nche.org

Health and safety are important topics for all youth in the United States. Violence prevention, environmental safety, and personal safety are just some of the important issues teachers and parents face when trying to keep children healthy and safe.

Celebrate National Health Education Week
October 16-20, 2006 in your school or community by using the lesson plans and resources made available by the National Center for Health Education.

To access free downloadable materials, visit us at:
www.nche.org